By DAN THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 22.—Day-dreaming about what would happen

Jimmy Durante got punched in the "technique." Jimmy Dunn and Walter Brown could keep their romances straightened out. Minna Gombell didn't appear in a Fox picture. Dorothy Mackail got tired of married life. Mary Brian should turn loose. Katharine Hepburn lost her millions. Tallulah Bankhead got caught. Joan Blondell and George Forman didn't get married after all. And what if there weren't any extra girls. Carl Lander is the little black book. Joan Barrymore can't really become serious about taking. Maurice Chevalier should lose his accent. Max Murray made another picture. Lilian Bond quit calling her men "daddy." Jean Harlow had stayed in Kansas City. And now remained in Brooklyn. Irving Thalberg should decide to retire.

Can Evelyn Be Married?

Evelyn Knapp and Donald Cook have slipped one over and are married. Anna Page should be permitted to go out unchaperoned. Charlie Ray climbed back into the big money. Mack Sennett got married. A film executive suddenly went senile. All the talk in the blink of an eye of these brilliant premieres. The "Red" yard should be refused to divorce him. Eleanor Holm had a bad day. Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford may stay home for a while. George Cukor would concentrate on directing picture. Will Wallum. Lily Damita knew about a certain picture I have. The fellow next door would quit playing piano.

Oh, Yes, Jack Gilbert's Wives?

Leatrice Joy, Ida Brown and Virginia Bruce (John Gilbert's wives) all got together some time. Wally Berry had his pilot's license taken away from him. The four Marx brothers all lived together. Clark Gable was married. Anna Sten made a picture. Joan Marsh didn't act so kidnapingly grown up. Lionel Barrymore had a juicy profile. A few people in Hollywood could keep secrets. Betty Davis learned to keep appointments. Will Rogers appeared at a theatre in a tuxedo. The original "Our Gang" got together for a reunion. Ralph Forbes went to sea-conscious on a polo field. Billie Dove should turn out on the John C. Ralston and Charlotte Greenwood in a picture together. Cecil B. DeMille should come down to earth. John Ford found walking home some night. Ronald Colman didn't steer clear of love scenes outside of working hours.

FINAL RITES ARE HELD FOR SOURDOUGH

Tributes Paid to Memory of "Blackjack" MacDonnell at Victoria

VICTORIA, Sept. 22.—A fine old character out of yesterday, whose life was lived in the most dramatic of the times which he helped to make, was laid to rest here Wednesday in the person of Ronald J. "Blackjack" MacDonnell, who was buried in Vancouver at the age of 83 years.

Many old timers who had followed the hard trail of 98 into the golden Yukon and here, there was through the wilderness that made British Columbia a country for the brave, paid their respects, while many of the younger generation paid tribute in their minds to one of their own.

SENIOR CLERK FACES CHARGES

TORONTO, Sept. 22.—H. L. Austin of Toronto, senior clerk in the provincial treasury department, was arrested today by provincial "r." charged with theft of money preliminary to a proposed deal at $2,000. Austin had been placed in the department in 1910. The alleged thefts were carried out by manipulation of bonds and stored several years ago. E. A. Dunlop, provincial treasurer, ordered an immediate investigation of the treasury books and the amount involved will be known in a few days. Some officials of the department fear the amount may reach five figures.

French Explorer To Seek Arctic By Catapult

MONTREAL, Sept. 22.—French explorers, who made expeditions into Africa and into central Asia by catapult, have now been ordered to undertake a journey across Canada into the Arctic circle. Jean Alphonse, Parisian journalist who described the previous expeditions, leaves here tomorrow for Ottawa to discuss the possibility of the expedition with J. H. McNeill, commissioner of the department of the Mounted police, and to map out for himself an advance trip into the north country. The journalists reached here this week from France by the Canadian Auroras. Alphonse is going to Vancouver and thence to northern ports. He will visit outposts of the Royal Canadian Mounted police and missions of the Oblate Fathers in the land of Sakum. From Dawson City, which he knows well and has visited before, he will travel by aeroplane to Alaska.

Rail Summary Avoids Mention Bus Competition

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—The summary made public today by the report of the Royal Commission on Transport of the railways to cope with automobile competition. It is understood that the commission has recommended that the railways be given the right of eminent domain in that regard to the proposed road.

Principal male part is played by John Doolan, whose fame as a singer has given him an established reputation as an actor of unusual depth of feeling.

STRAND

A swimming pool with its beach of bathing beauties and an elaborate fancy-dance hall in a millionaire's mansion are but two of the back-grounds that contrast vividly with the unassuming personality of Will Rogers in the star's newest screen production, "Down to Earth."

Although the locale of the story is chiefly in Oklahoma, where Rogers, Homer Gage, deliberately played a highly intelligent, sophisticated millionaire here to add to the comedy of the plot.

HEDGING SALES WEIGH HEAVILY ON WHEAT MART

WINNIEP, Sept. 22.—Heavy hedging sales weighed heavily on wheat prices today and prices reacted fractionally from yesterday's high prices at the close were 1/4 to one cent lower for the day.

October closed at 81 1/2, November in its first appearance this season, was quoted up at 82 1/2, December at 83 1/2 and May at 84 1/2.

Export trade looked a trifle brighter and the season was placed at about 1,000,000 bushels. Yesterday's activity, however, brought out much more from farms throughout the west and, consequently, heavy hedging sales were more than offset the export demand.

Although at country points yesterday closed 4,000 bushels. In addition to the outlook there was some selling of Chicago and localities by traders had brought on the strength of yesterday's advance.

At Pacific coast was evident with a good deal of export trade and a very heavy movement is expected from Vancouver in the course of the next few weeks, traders believe.

Domestic and foreign millers and merchants had exchanged good quantities of wheat yesterday and the grain business had been worked in Australian and Canadian parities at increased prices. The majority of western exports was disappointing to exporters and caused some short coming in the Liverpool market.

STOCK MARKET

NERVOUS: PRICES CARRIED LOWER

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The stock market experienced alternating calm and nervous trading today. Early nervous fluctuations gave way to a rally and then to a decline which carried prices down to 1/2 point at the close.

The rally, after their leadership in yesterday's speculative advance, resulted in a sharp rise in the market. The Pacific and New York group of stocks rose to more than 2 points, but this was later counteracted by selling done in the market and by early afternoon the market had again become nervous.

Public utility stocks appeared somewhat overvalued at the opening, but the market's shifting direction of price movement elsewhere but late yielded with American Telephone, American Water Works, United States and Consolidated Gas, all of which were at the worst 1/2 U. S. Steel, after early strength, lost 1/2 point before it reached a stronger resistance level, and most of the same pattern was worn by Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, General Motors, General Motors and General Motors.
